Sources said nine youngsters, with their faces covered, attacked six persons, most of whom are Dalit Christians, with sickles.

After the attack in Nettur that falls under Tenkasi's Alangulam police limits, the gang attempted to escape via Therkupatti under Manur police limits in Tirunelveli. When two passers-by, identified as Mubarak (30) and Abdul Rahman (36), questioned their reckless driving, the gang injured the duo.

Police said three different FIRs were filed against the gang in connection with the four attacks. "During the search carried out by Tirunelveli and Tenkasi police, eight suspects were arrested. Search is on to nab re-

Crowdfunding-backed ₹60,000 cr high-speed rly project in KL pipeline

As per plan submitted by 'Metro Man' to CM, Kerala govt's share projected at ₹17,600 crore

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ KOCHI

THE Kerala High-Speed Railway project proposed by 'Metro Man' E Sreedharan between Thiruvananthapuram and Kannur will carry a price tag of ₹60,000 crore, of which Rs 24,000 crore (40%) will be mobilised through crowdfunding and the remainder funded jointly by the Centre and the state.

The KHSR, submitted to Chief Minister V D Sathesnan, envisages a 473-km high-speed rail corridor connecting the two districts in three-and-a-half hours. The project cost is less than half the financial implications projected for the now-scrapped SilverLine, which a NITI Aayog assessment had estimated could eventually place a burden of around ₹1.26 lakh crore on Kerala.

The report also pitches the corridor as the world's first 'Green Rail Corridor', with its entire energy requirement proposed to be met through a captive solar power system.

A major attraction of the project is its financing structure. Of the total cost, ₹36,000 crore will be contributed as equity by the Union and the state governments on a 51:49 ratio, leaving Kerala's share at around ₹17,600 crore. The remaining ₹24,000 crore is proposed to be mobilised through crowdfunding, significantly reducing the need for large-scale debt financing.

Sources close to Sreedharan said the crowdfunding component could be implemented through the issuance of tax-free bonds. The KHSR proposal also differs substantially from SilverLine in its design. It envisages a double-line railway corridor running largely on elevated viaducts, with only a short underground stretch in Thiruvananthapuram.

CM Vijay to visit Tiruchy on Mon to thank voters

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tiruchy

CHIEF Minister C Joseph Vijay is expected to visit Tiruchy on June 1 (Monday) to thank voters in Tiruchy East following his Assembly election victory. Preparations are under way for a thanksgiving meeting at St Joseph's Higher Secondary School grounds.

Addressing media on Saturday, TNUHDB chairman Ku Pa Krishnan appealed to party cadre and the public not to follow the CM's convoy from the airport to the venue. According to cadre, Vijay is scheduled to arrive in Tiruchy around 4 pm by chartered flight. He would undertake an informal roadshow before proceeding to the venue.

No official will be on more than one committee, states TNPDCCL

THE Manufacturer Assessment Committee will independently evaluate material and equipment costs by consulting original equipment manufacturers. The Crosscheck Committee will then verify estimates from both panels, benchmarking proposed rates against TNPDCCL's latest purchase order rates, procurement rates of other state utilities and online market prices, including those on the GeM portal.

On timelines, the Market Analysis and the Manufacturer Assessment committees must submit reports within 15 days of receiving intimation from chief engineers or superintendent engineers on proposed tenders. The Crosscheck Committee then has seven days to submit its findings. TNPDCCL has also mandated that no official should serve on more than one of the three committees.

Under the existing practice, estimates were largely prepared with inputs from private agencies, after which tenders were floated, contracts awarded to the lowest bidder and prices negotiated before finalising purchase orders. "With these committees, estimates will undergo multiple levels of scrutiny before tenders are even floated, ensuring rates are realistic, competitive and in line with market conditions," a senior TNPDCCL official said.
