Wednesday. Hours earlier, Bhageerath moved the Telangana High Court seeking anticipatory bail in connection with the case.

According to the petition, the FIR dated May 8, 2026 was initially registered at the Pet Basheerabad Police Station under Sections 74 (criminal force to woman with intent to outrage modesty) and 75 (sexual harassment) of the BNS, along with Section 11 read with Section 12 of the POCSO Act dealing with sexual harassment and non-penetrative acts involving sexual intent.

Waive all crop, co-op loans: Farmers

Ramanathapuram: The Tamil Nadu Vaigai Farmers Association has urged Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay to waive all crop and cooperative loans availed by farmers across the state without imposing any conditions. THE Tamil Nadu Liquor Retail Vending (in Shops and Bars) Rules, 2003, had so far mandated the closure of liquor shops situated within 50m (in urban areas) and 100m (in rural areas) from educational institutions and places of worship. The latest order now extends the restriction limit to 500m.

Officials added that staff in the closed outlets will be accommodated in the remaining functioning ones. Meanwhile, welcoming the initiative, the Tamil Nadu Tasmac Workers Association general secretary T Dhanasekar urged the state government to also identify and shut FL2 licensed bars (private bars) and recreation clubs functioning within 500m of educational institutions, places of worship and bus depots.

"The government announcement has not mentioned FL2 licensed bars. If such bars are also closed, the objective of the government's move will be fully achieved. There are 1,497 FL2 licensed holders across the state" he added.

MLAs S P Velumani and G Hari have been elected as the leader and deputy leader of the legislature party. "We have no intention to split the AIADMK. We are only concerned about the party," Velumani said.

Countering this, on behalf of the MLAs supporting EPS, MLA and former minister O S Manian said they had letters of all 47 AIADMK MLAs declaring support to Palaniswami as the general secretary and as the leader of the legislature party.

"Their desire to attain positions of power is making them (the Shanmugam faction) speak in such a manner," he charged. Manian said 26 MLAs accompanied their team when they met the pro-tem speaker.

Agri S S Krishnamurthy, whip of the EPS group, said a whip has been issued to all 47 MLAs to vote against the TVK government on Wednesday during the trust vote. "If they violate this, legal action will be taken," he added. After the Secretariat episode, both AIADMK factions visited the memorial of late Chief Minister J Jayalalithaa and offered prayers.

Meanwhile, National Democratic Alliance ally AMMK's lone MLA, S Kamaraj, while felicitating the newly-elected Speaker J C D Prabhakar, announced his support for the TVK government. Following this, the party's general secretary, T T V Dhinakaran, expelled Kamaraj from the party. As he is AMMK's lone MLA, Kamaraj's support to TVK won't invoke the anti-defection law.

Asked about the two AIADMK groups naming separate floor leaders and whips, former speaker M Appavu of the DMK said the final call on recognising the AIADMK legislature party and office-bearers rests with the Speaker, whose decision can only be challenged in court.

Appavu said disqualification would not arise if the rival faction had the support of two-thirds of the AIADMK MLAs, allowing them to function separately or even merge with another party.

In the absence of such a majority, the Speaker would have to decide the issue, he said, noting that EPS had issued Form-B and the party symbol to all the candidates.

Another former Speaker, P Dhanapal, who belongs to AIADMK but is not in active politics, said action could be taken against MLAs who vote against the party line or leadership only after the legislature party leader and chief whip are elected, adding that, with both AIADMK factions staking a claim, the final decision rests with the Speaker under prescribed guidelines.
